[[Wo-Man(i)festo]]

.my eyes.

are open
wide to the world around me.
i invite even the harshest of realities to pass like rays of light and energy through my filtered lenses down into my nerves
and stick like sap
to the wrinkles of

.my fingerprints.

are imprints of influence—tiny coils comprised of all realizations and realities i have gathered along my way wound tightly around
a solid core, a purpose like dark markings etched into the inner rings of

.my heart.

at a meta-metronome pace.
pumped by the desire to live life deliberately it moves my muscles like a marionette feeding energy through every extremity motivating my body
to shift and shake
with purposeful intention it inspires

.my spirit.

bounces wildly within the confines of my skin and explodes from the tips of the fingers in my outstretched hands like a million tiny seabirds taking flight over the vast ocean and into an endless sky
full of freedom
possibility
passion
and purpose.

.my purpose?

→ my man(i)festo.

actually has very little to do with me
my eyes, my fingerprints,
my heart, my spirit...
(i) stay unseen.
secreted and out of sight
my identity concealed by the greater works of art around me.
i am a mere vehicle
a machine
a porter--
instigating awareness
unearthing truths
encouraging transformations delivering a message much larger than myself.

.my message.

will REDEFINE the way that people look at the world.
alienated by ignorance
we believe we stand as separate beings in purpose and in responsibility.
but
WE ARE NOT ALONE.
we are
INTERCONNECTED
to the inner workings
of the world
which is painted
and sculpted
and splattered
around us.

.my creations.

are A CALL TO ARMS.
they do not demand that people hug a tree or save the whales.
rather, they encourage people to realize that WE EACH HAVE THE ABILITY to

open our eyes to the realities around us understand that our fingerprints leave lasting marks allow our hearts to beat and spirits to soar in ways that will stitch together the seam that's been torn (between us + our surroundings)

RE-AWAKEN

RE-INVIGORATE

RE-IMAGINE

REALIZE the connection we have to everything around us. and
